

EVENTS OF DAY IN WEST SCRANTON

VIADUCT CAMPAIGN COMMITTEE OUTLINE THEIR PLANS.

Propose to Boom the Present Scheme to Build the Structure on the South Side of West Lackawanna Avenue. Arguments That Are Advanced in Favor of the Present Plans—Public School Deposits and the Advantages of the System—Other Matters of Interest.

The viaduct campaign committee of the West Side board of trade met last evening in the rooms over the bank and discussed the plans for carrying on the work incidental to booming the present plans now before the public. It might be well to add that the committee proposed to boom the project to build the viaduct on the south side of the street, whether the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad contributes anything towards it or not, and they are using some very persuasive arguments for the construction of the contemplated viaduct.

T. Fellows, chairman of the committee, announced that he had a very satisfactory interview yesterday afternoon with Manager Silliman, of the street railway company, and was assured that the company is heartily in favor of a viaduct, and will announce in a few days the amount which they propose donating towards its construction. Mr. Mason also stated that the options on the Stove works property also remain at the same figures quoted three years ago, and that inasmuch as the Stove company owns half of the property in the block on the north side of the street, between Seventh and Eighth streets, there will be no claim for damages as far as they are concerned.

It is estimated by the committee that if the viaduct was built in the middle of the street it would cost, together with the damages that would be asked, over $500,000. The property which the owners alleged would be damaged is valued at $100,000, and arguing that the value would decrease one-half, there would be $50,000 damages alone to pay. But on the other hand, it is contended that the proposed plan, which will cost $150,000, will not only widen West Lackawanna avenue and lessen the traffic over the crossing, but it will enhance the value of the property. This contention is based on the fact that the ground underneath the proposed viaduct will be utilized as a market place, and thus make it the principal wholesale trading center in the city.

The practicability of the market place argument, from a monetary point of view, is given in a comparison with the city of Reading, which derives $35,000 annually from the privileges which are afforded to merchants and produce dealers. It is also expected that the proposed market place will relieve the congested condition of lower Lackawanna avenue and increase the volume of business now done by the wholesale merchants. A portion of the Jersey central land at the corner of West Lackawanna avenue and Seventh street will be available in order to avoid the turn in the present plans at the east end entrance to the viaduct.

The committee proposes to issue a circular in a few days which will have the endorsement of the most prominent citizens and property-owners of the city, and a sub-committee composed of Hon. John R. Farr, Attorney C. E. Daniels and Merchant E. M. Clarke was appointed to draw up a circular putting forth the advantages and necessity of the viaduct. These circulars will be printed in the newspapers and mailed to the voters. A poster will also be printed and circulated and a general appeal made to the voters to support the measure at the February election, which will occur three weeks from today.

Arrangements will also be made for a public meeting, at which several prominent speakers will make addresses and another meeting of the committee will be held in the board of trade rooms next Monday evening to receive the reports of sub-committees and arrange the final details of the campaign.

PUBLIC SCHOOL DEPOSITS.

The public school savings bank at No. 19 school has been in operation now about two years, and is looking over accounts for that time it is not without a marked degree of satisfaction that the teachers find the program steady and practical. An experiment at first, it has developed into enthusiasm that bids fair to be permanent, because of the lessons in thrift and the growing habit of saving among the young, which are bound to be attended by innumerable blessings, both moral and material.

Figures bear excellent testimony to its growth. The West Side bank from this one building alone has 228 deposits on its books, and in the time mentioned above these little capitalists have deposited $1,529.71. The withdrawals amount to very little and in every instance the money has been put to good use.

Doctor's bills, winter clothing and Christmas gifts for parents or friends made the only reductions in the account once started. Parents have been most instrumental in furthering the cause of this virtue of frugality and the press has been no less zealous in its support.

The following are the deposits made yesterday from Nos. 19 and 22: No. 19—Miss Lees, 55 cents; Miss Murray, 50 cents; Miss Nichols, $1.55; Miss Beamish, $1.29; Miss Morgan, 35 cents; Miss Leader, 10 cents; Miss Flynn, 97 cents; Miss Egan, 70 cents; Miss Kellow, 87 cents; Miss Yost, 41 cents; Miss Wade, 45 cents; Miss Murphy, 79 cents; Mrs. Forber, 82 cents; Miss Peck, 22 cents; total, $10.47.

No. 22—Miss Knapp, 65 cents; Miss Vaughan, 48 cents; Miss Freeman, 91 cents; Miss Fellows, 56 cents; Miss Ruddy, 31 cents; Miss Mullen, 66 cents; Miss O'Connor, 51 cents; Miss Carpenter, $5.71; total, $9.85.

There were no collections made in No. 19 school yesterday, owing to the building being closed down for disinfection.

A NUMBER OF ALDERMANIC CASES YESTERDAY.

William Bashinsky, a Junk Dealer, Charged by John Gibbons with Stealing Old Iron and Was Held in $500 Bail—Joseph Minkotaycik Accused of Many Crimes by His Wife, Who Later Repented—Fred Jones Brings Suit Against Scranton Railway Company.

William Bashinsky, a junk dealer, was yesterday arrested on a warrant issued by Alderman Ruddy at the instance of John Gibbons. The arrest was made by Deputy Sheriff Martin Flaherty.

At the hearing Mr. Gibbons charged Bashinsky with the larceny of a quantity of iron, the property of the Conell Coal company.

When the defendant was arrested he had a quantity of iron in his wagon, which was later returned to its rightful owners.

Bashinsky was held in $500 bail, in default of which he was committed to jail to await the next term of court.

Enroute to the county jail, however, he found a bondsman and entered bail before Alderman John, of the West Side.

A MUCH-ACCUSED MAN.

Joseph Minkotaycik, of Priceburg, was yesterday arrested by Officer Max Firestein on a warrant issued by Alderman Lentes on four charges, namely, drunk and disorderly, assault and battery, threats to kill and barbarous and cruel treatment. His wife, Polegia Minkotaycik, figured as prosecutor.

The defendant paid $2 fine and costs of prosecution on the first charge and was held in $900 bail on the other three charges.

Before they left the alderman's office the prosecutor relented and withdrew the charges, the errand husband promising to be better in the future. The young couple, who have been married but one short year, then left for home as happy as a pair of lovers.

OTHER ALDERMANIC DOINGS.

Fred Jones, of Cedar avenue, yesterday instituted proceedings before Alderman Ruddy to recover damages from the Scranton Railway Company. About six months ago one of the traction company's cars collided with Mr. Jones' buggy, wrecking the same and injuring his horse. The bill is returnable February 2.

Thomas Duffy, of Irving avenue, was on Sunday evening arrested by Officer Quinnan for being drunk and disorderly and was lodged in the South Side station house, where he spent the night.

He was yesterday morning arraigned before Alderman Lentes for a hearing and after receiving a severe reprimand was discharged.
